NOTIFICATION

G. O. (P) No. 249/2011/H&FWD.

Dated, Thiruvananthapuram, 26th March 2011.

S. R. O. No. 264/2011.—In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (e) of Section 2 of the Kerala Anatomy Act, 1957 (Act 17 of 1957), the Government of Kerala hereby declare that the Ahalia Ayurveda Medical College, Palakkad established by Ahalia International Foundation, Palakkad as a teaching medical institution for the purpose of the said Act.

By order of the Governor,

DR. DAVENDRA KUMAR DHODAWAT,
Secretary to Government.

Explanatory Note

(This does not form part of the notification, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

As the demand for cadavers for teaching purpose in Medical Institutions is very high. Government have notified the Superintendents of five Government Medical Colleges and Superintendents of General Hospitals in Ernakulam and Thalasseri and in seven other District Hospitals where mortuary facility is available as authorized officers under the Kerala Anatomy Act, 1957 to collect unclaimed dead bodies and to transport them to the Anatomy Department of Government Medical Colleges for embalming and supplying to the institutions which are notified as teaching medical institutions under the above said Act. Now, Government have decided to notify the Ahalia Ayurveda Medical College, Palakkad established by the Ahalia International Foundation, Palakkad as a teaching medical institution in order to avail the above benefit.

The notification is intended to achieve the above object.
